

Fresno Advertising Federation
Nancy Thielen Award
 Nomination

Established in 1994, The Nancy Thielen Award recognizes dedicated younger people in the advertising industry. Honorees pursue excellence, provide service to the community, and are developing a positive presence in the advertising industry. The award is named in honor of the late Nancy Thielen, who dedicated herself to mentoring the advertising and marketing careers of young people. The Fresno Advertising Federation invites you to participate in this tradition of rewarding excellence by nominating an exceptional person you consider worthy of this award.

Selection Criteria

- The nominee has been in the industry for at least 5 years. The nominee has demonstrated a consistently high degree of creative and original thinking in his/her field.
- The nominee has worked to raise and maintain high standards in the advertising profession.
- The nominee is involved in advertising-related organizations, including committee leadership and holding office.
- The nominee is an individual who has shown exceptional advertising and marketing ability and has applied this ability to specific projects in the industry.
